• MMC

Marymount Manhattan is a small liberal arts college with a vibrant community of creative and intellectually curious students. From our home on Manhattan's Upper East Side, you'll be immersed in exciting educational and career-enhancing opportunities across New York City.

Pursue Your Future with Passion and Purpose

MMC offers outstanding programs in Arts and Sciences, Business, Communication and Media Arts, and Performing Arts. Our interdisciplinary approach to learning allows you to customize your education and prepares you for a meaningful life and career.

“My experience at MMC challenged me not only to study the basic sciences in a linear sequence, but also to integrate coursework from sociology, language, and philosophy. MMC prepared me so well that I completed a master’s degree at Harvard University and am now pursuing my MD at Tufts University School of Medicine.”

Academics That Break the Mold

29 Majors. 40 Minors.
Or Create Your Own Program.

Discover a versatile and personalized education at Marymount Manhattan College. Select a major and a minor that blend your passions and professional aspirations: Theatre and Business Management, Psychology and Neuroscience. Or create your own program through interdisciplinary studies. Along the way, you'll explore your creativity and interests with flexibility, encouragement, and support.

Whether you're studying English and World Literatures, Politics and Human Rights, Fine Arts, Dance, or Biology, you'll receive a well-grounded liberal arts education and solid foundational skills essential to success: critical thinking, problem solving, and the ability to adapt and change.

Enjoy small classes, close and collaborative relationships with professors, and experiential learning. Communication Arts majors attend screenings hosted by local filmmakers, while Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology majors receive on-site clinical training at MMC's Ruth Smadbeck Communication and Learning Center. And that's just the beginning.

Read The Merchant of Venice in Venice. Dance through the halls of Roehampton University in London. Study abroad is a pivotal experience for many MMC students. See the world up close, learn a new language, and discover new cultures. MMC has programs in Italy and Holland and can connect you to study abroad programs in more than 50 countries.

Unlimited horizons are the hallmark of a MMC education.

PASSION UN CHECKED

New Digital Media Production Studio in The Theresa Lang Center for Producing is raising the bar for students pursuing careers in journalism, communications, and digital media.

Dedicated Faculty

MMC faculty mentor students in research projects, help them land prestigious internships, and prepare students for graduate study and careers. Small classes that average just 18 students ensure meaningful, engaged interaction between professors and students every day.

“I took Creative Writing classes with MMC faculty. They took the time to listen to my ideas and meticulously read and edited my workshop pieces, line by line. They cared about my writing as much as I did and encouraged me to continue writing. It is because of them, and my time in the program at MMC, that I pursued my MFA.”

—Danielle Elizabeth Chin '13

CREATIVITY UN COMPRO MISED

Do you dream of a stage career or advancing medical research? Will you study Digital Media or Entrepreneurship, Fine Arts or Fashion? Combine a Journalism degree with Politics and Human Rights or Pre-Law and Environmental Studies. At Marymount Manhattan, our intensely exciting, creative, and supportive learning environment enables students to pursue individual pathways to personal discovery and professional fulfillment. Discover inspiring academics, transformative internships, and professors that empower you to achieve your goals in original and innovative ways.

“At Marymount Manhattan College, I not only received the very highest technical training, but my education in dance and the liberal arts opened my eyes and mind to all that I could become. As a result of my training at MMC and the relationships I developed along the way, I was blessed to be hired by the Parsons Dance Company immediately upon graduation.”

CITY EDGE

CityEdge—The MMC Advantage

CityEdge is a shared set of concentrated experiences for all MMC students that provides expanded opportunities for career exploration and readiness while deepening students' immersion in New York City—the global capital in the arts, media, commerce, finance, fashion, research, technology, and education.

www.mmm.edu/cityedge

“Just being at MMC was a huge asset to pursuing a career in news. I was able to balance classes in both Journalism/ Communications and Politics (my main interest), and simultaneously take advantage of a huge array of internship opportunities throughout the city.”

—Molly Ward '15

LIFE UN LIMITED

55th Street Residence Hall

Live Uptown or Downtown, Easy Access to the Entire City

The 55th Street Residence Hall (the tallest in the U.S.) and the East Village's newly constructed Cooper Square Residence Hall offer a variety of living options, 24-hour security, spectacular views, fitness center, student lounges, cable TV, internet, a convenience store, and a local restaurant that participates in the MMC meal plan. Campus access is easy with subway and bus lines just steps from each building.

Flex Your Marymount Muscle

Learning through engagement is a key component of the MMC mission. Marymount Muscle, the community service program, provides students with engaging and meaningful service experiences that include alternative spring break programs, volunteering, internships, and co-curricular activities with a wide variety of nonprofits.
